Attorneys for Navy Federal Credit Union

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

ELEXIA STANLEY, an individual

Plaintiff,

vs.

NAVY FEDERAL CREDIT UNION, a foreign corporation,

Defendants.

CASE NO.: 2:24-CV-02092-JCM-DJA

STIPULATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER TO EXTEND TIME TO FILE RESPONSIVE
PLEADING

(FIRST REQUEST)

Plaintiff Elexia Stanley and defendant Navy Federal Credit Union agree to allow Navy Federal an extension of twenty-eight (28) days, up to and including February 18, 2025, to file its responsive pleading. Navy Federal's current responsive pleading deadline is January 21, 2025.¹

Good cause exists to grant the requested extension because the parties are still having substantive discussions about settlement and due to the inadvertent excusable neglect outline in footnote 1. The extension will allow ongoing settlement efforts and, if unsuccessful, allow time for Navy Federal to file its responsive pleading.

This is the parties' first request for an extension of this deadline and is not intended to cause any delay or prejudice.

DATED February 10th, 2025.
